

St. George's Anglican Church in the heart of the historic district originally built in 1846 and a Methodist Episcopal Church in the heart of the historic district originally built in 1846. Both churches were destroyed by fire in 1912, later rebuilt in brick and stone.

St. George's Anglican Church, Gothic Revival style, built in 1846 and destroyed by fire in 1912.

St. George's Anglican Church, Gothic Revival style, built in 1846 and destroyed by fire in 1912.

St. George's Anglican Church, Gothic Revival style, built in 1846 and destroyed by fire in 1912.

St. George's Anglican Church, Gothic Revival style, built in 1846 and destroyed by fire in 1912.