By Council Members Hairston and Griffin
(by departmental request)

AN EMERGENCY ORDINANCE

Establishing three areas encompassing the entire City of Cleveland as Community Reinvestment Areas under Section 3735.65 et seq. of the Ohio Revised Code, and making certain findings and determinations in connection with the Community Reinvestment Areas.

WHEREAS, Section 3735.65 et seq. of the Ohio Revised Code authorizes municipalities to designate Community Reinvestment Areas where certain criteria have been met; and

WHEREAS, the City of Cleveland is an area in which housing facilities or structures of historical significance are located, and new construction and repair of existing facilities or structures are discouraged; and

WHEREAS, The Ohio Constitution, Article VIII, Section 16, has recognized Housing to be a proper public purpose and programs to promote housing to be in the public interest; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance constitutes an emergency measure providing for the immediate preservation of public property, health, and safety, in that creating three Community Reinvestment Areas will encourage housing development and providing for the usual daily operation of a municipal department; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CLEVELAND:

Section 1. That based upon information and data presented to this Council and contained in File No. 482-2022-B, it is found and determined that the City of Cleveland is an area in which housing facilities or structures of historical significance are located and new construction and repair of existing facilities or structures are discouraged.

Section 2. That the area within the municipal boundaries of the City of Cleveland, as depicted on the zoned boundary map contained in the above-mentioned file, is divided into three designated Community Reinvestment Areas under Section 3735.65 et seq. of the Revised Code.

Section 3. That Community Reinvestment Area #1, the Strong Market Area ("CRA #1"), Community Reinvestment Area #2, the Middle Market Area ("CRA #2"), and Community Reinvestment Area #3, the Opportunity Area ("CRA #3") (jointly the "CRAs") are areas where the construction of new residential structures and the remodeling of existing residential structures are declared to be a public purpose for which exemptions from real property taxation shall be granted in the following manner in accordance with Section 3735.67 of the Revised Code:

From the date of passage of this Ordinance until December 31, 2023,

(a) The owner of any such real property in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes for new construction projects consisting of one and two family residential properties and multi-family residential structures consisting of three or more units.

(b) The owner of any such real property in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes for the remodeling of existing multi-family residential structures consisting of three or more units where remodeling costs are greater than $15,000 per unit or $500,000 per structure.

Ordinance No. 482-2022

AS AMENDED

(c) The owner of any such real property in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes for the remodeling of one and two family residential properties where remodeling costs are greater than $2,500.

(d) For mixed-use projects, defined as those containing both residential and commercial components, only the residential component is eligible for tax abatement in accordance with the approved schedule.

An owner who has submitted a Part-One Application with the City and a completed submission of Schematic Drawings on or before December 31, 2023 will remain eligible for the above abatement schedule.

From January 1, 2024 until the sunset date exemptions from real property taxation shall be granted in the following manner:

SINGLE FAMILY NEW CONSTRUCTION

(e) The owner of any restricted affordable housing, where all units are affordable at 80% Area Median Income ("AMI") or below for a minimum of 15 years, in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes for new construction projects consisting of one, two, and three family residential properties.

(f) The owner of any non-restricted housing in (i) CRA #1 may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 85% of the increased assessed taxes not to exceed $350,000.00, (ii) CRA #2 may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes not to exceed $400,000.00, and (iii) CRA #3 may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes not to exceed $450,000.00 for new construction projects consisting of one, two, and three family residential properties.

(g) The owner of any housing that meets the City of Cleveland Aging in Place standards in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes not to exceed $450,000.00 for new construction projects consisting of one, two, and three family residential properties.

SINGLE FAMILY REMODELING

(h) The owner of any restricted affordable housing, where all units are affordable at 80% Area Median Income ("AMI") or below for a minimum of 15 years, in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes for the remodeling of one, two, and three family residential properties where remodeling costs are greater than $5,000.

(i) The owner of any housing in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for 100% of the increased assessed taxes not to exceed $450,000.00 for the remodeling of one, two, and three family residential properties where remodeling costs are greater than $5,000.

(j) For mixed-use projects, defined as those containing both residential and commercial components, only the residential component is eligible for tax abatement in accordance with the approved schedule.

MULTIFAMILY NEW CONSTRUCTION

(k) The owner of any residential real property may file an application with the Housing Officer and shall be eligible for an exemption from real property taxation (i) for a period of 15 years for 100% in CRA#3, and in CRA#1 and CRA#2 if all units are affordable as defined in the table attached in the above-mentioned file, (ii) for a period of 15 years for 85% in CRA#1, and (iii) in CRA#2, for a period of 15 years for 90% of the increased assessed taxes for new construction multi-family projects consisting of four or more units occurring according to the rules outlined in Section 3735.67 of the Revised Code. The owner must enter into a Community Benefits Agreement ("CBA") with the City's Department of Community Development. The CBA must require that the owner comply with the Codified Ordinances of Cleveland, Ohio, 1976, Chapters 187, 188, and 189 and must include a requirement that the owner set aside affordable units in accordance with the table attached in the above-mentioned file. The CBA may waive the set aside requirements in the event the owner makes a voluntary payment in accordance with the table.

MULTIFAMILY REMODELING

(l) The owner of any residential real property in the CRAs may file an application with the Housing Officer and shall be eligible for an exemption from real property taxation for a period of 15 years for one hundred percent (100%) of the increased assessed taxes resulting from the remodeling of existing multi-family residential structures consisting of four or more units where remodeling costs are greater than $15,000 per unit or $500,000 per structure for the activities described in Section 3735.67 of the Revised Code. The owner must enter into a CBA with the City's Department of Community Development. The CBA must require that the owner comply with the Cleveland Codified Ordinances Chapters 187, 188, and 189 and must include a requirement that the owner set aside affordable units in accordance with the table placed in the above-mentioned file. The Agreement may waive the set aside requirements in the event the owner makes a voluntary payment in accordance with the table.

(m) Notwithstanding the provisions of (a) through (l) above, for any residential property that has been determined to be a dwelling structure of historical or architectural significance, and is a certified historic structure that has been subject to federal tax treatment under 26 U.S.C. 47 and 170(h), as amended, and in which units within the structure have been leased to individual tenants for five consecutive years, and which dwelling is being converted from for-rent to for-sale, and for which an exemption has previously been granted, the owner of such dwelling may apply for an extension of the exemption period for an additional period of 10 years from the date of the approval of application for extension. The exemption from real property taxation for the new 10-year period shall be for 100% of the assessed taxes for the difference in value between the County Auditor's value of the unit before abatement at the time of condominium conversion and the for-sale value following the conversion. The owner must amend any existing Agreement with the City prior to being granted the extension."

Section 4. That all owners of real property in the CRAs that file an application with the Housing Officer for an exemption from real property taxation, must demonstrate that new construction or remodeling meets the City's Cleveland Green Building Standard found in the Cleveland Green Building Standard Handbook, effective December 5, 2017, and which may be amended or updated from time to time by the Department of Community Development, in order to be eligible for residential or commercial tax abatement.

~~Section 5.~~ That all commercial projects are required to comply with the state application fee requirements of Section 3735.672 (C) of the Revised Code and the local annual monitoring fee of one percent of the amount of taxes exempted under the agreement a minimum of $500 up to a maximum of $2500 annually unless waived.

~~Section 6- 5~~ That the Commissioner of Neighborhood Development for the City of Cleveland shall serve as Housing Officer, as defined by Section 3735.65 et seq. of the Revised Code, for the Community Reinvestment Areas described above and shall administer all activities carried out under Section 3735.65 et seq. of the Revised Code and this ordinance.

~~Section 7- 6.~~ That a Housing Council shall be appointed for the Community Reinvestment Areas under Section 3735.69 of the Revised Code, and the City of Cleveland has previously established the Housing Council that will continue to serve as the Housing Council for these Community Reinvestment Areas, and shall make an annual inspection of the properties within the Area for which abatements have been granted and shall hear appeals under Section 3735.70 of the Revised Code.

~~Section 8.~~ That a Tax Incentive Review Council shall be established pursuant to Section 5709.85 of the Revised Code, and the City of Cleveland has previously established the Tax Incentive Review Council that will continue to serve as the Tax Incentive Review Council for these Community Reinvestment Areas, and shall consist of the chief executive officer or that officer's designee; a member of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation, appointed by the president of the legislative authority; the county auditor or the county auditor's designee; the chief financial officer of the municipal corporation or that officer's designee; an individual appointed by the board of education of each city, local, exempted village, and joint vocational school district to which the instrument granting the exemption applies; and two members of the public appointed by the chief executive officer of the municipal corporation with the concurrence of the legislative authority. At least four members of the council shall be residents of the municipal corporation, and at least one of the two public members appointed by the chief executive officer shall be a minority. As used in this section, a "minority" is an individual who is African-American, Hispanic, or Native American. The
