

Ordinance No. 720-2025

By Council Members Starr and Hairston

AN EMERGENCY ORDINANCE

To supplement the Codified Ordinances of Cleveland, Ohio 1976 by enacting new Sections 164.01 to 164.04 and 173.19, relating to the creation of the Cleveland Commission on Black Males.

WHEREAS, Black men have been subject to systemic issues due to historic and current policy decisions; for example, discriminatory policies, such as redlining, have led to racially segregated neighborhoods, concentrated poverty, and inequitable access to quality public schools due to unconstitutional school funding formulas based on property values; and

WHEREAS, this, and many other systemic issues, have led to disparate impacts and unfavorable outcomes for the Black community, but Black men are disproportionately impacted when it comes to criminalization, incarceration, education, and community violence; and

WHEREAS, Black male bodies tend to be more criminalized than their peers, beginning from preschool; they are suspended from school at a disproportionate rate compared to their peers, which encourages the school-to-prison pipeline of Black males; and

WHEREAS, according to the 2023 report from US Commission on the Status of Black Men and Boys, in the 2020-21 school year, Black boys made up 9 percent of the total preschool enrollment but 23.1 percent of preschool-aged children who faced one or more out-of-school suspensions; in K-12 schools, Black boys represented roughly seven percent but made up 15% of total single out-of-school suspension; and

WHEREAS, Black men were incarcerated at a rate of 1,826 per 100,000 compared to the total men’s incarceration rate of 666 per 100,000 according to a 2022 analysis of the Bureau of Justice Statistics data by the Prison Policy Initiative; and

WHEREAS, Black men are among the least educated in the country; according to the National Center for Education Statistics in 2019, 28% of Black men ages 25-29 had a bachelor’s degree or higher compared to 40% of their white counterparts; and

WHEREAS, Black men in Cuyahoga County are the most impacted by violence; and according to the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor’s Office, between 2019-2024, a majority of homicide victims and perpetrators were Black males between the ages of 18-39; and

WHEREAS, Black men need more trauma-informed support than is currently available in the City or County; according to the Cuyahoga County Community Health Needs Assessment, there are significant untreated trauma, depression, and other mental health concerns among African American adults and children, especially those who've been impacted by homicides, non-fatal shootings, and other violence; and there is a lack of coordinated trauma-informed care and community building to support those affected by violence; and

WHEREAS, there is a significant need for more mentorship opportunities, community support, and trauma-informed care for young Black men transitioning from high school to higher education, workforce, and adult life; and

WHEREAS, this Council creates the Commission on Black Males whose mission is to study and research the state of Black men and boys in the city of Cleveland to understand gaps in services and areas of need to ensure improved quality of life for Black men and boys; and to build a network of organizations that serve the Black male population, and create and uplift mentorship opportunities and programs for young Black males transitioning out of high school into adulthood; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance constitutes an emergency measure providing for the usual daily operation of a municipal department; now, therefore,
