

Ordinance No. 372-2024

By Council Members McCormack and Griffin (by departmental request)

AN EMERGENCY ORDINANCE

Authorizing the Director of Port Control to exercise the first option to renew Contract No. LS 2023-001 with BP Products, North America, Inc., for the lease of City-owned property commonly known as the North Fuel Farm located at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport, for the purpose of operating an aviation fuel storage and handling facility.

WHEREAS, under the authority of Ordinance No. 83-2019, passed January 28, 2019, the Director of Port Control entered into Contract No. LS 2023-001 with BP Products, North America, Inc., for the purpose of operating an aviation fuel storage and handling facility; and

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 83-2019 requires additional legislation to exercise the first option to renew; and

WHEREAS, for the use of the Leased premises, BP Products, North America, Inc., shall pay the City an annual fee as specified in the contract; and

WHEREAS, this ordinance constitutes an emergency measure providing for the usual daily operation of a municipal department; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CLEVELAND:

Section 1. That the Director of Port Control is authorized to exercise the first option to renew Contract No. LS 2023-001 with BP Products, North America, Inc. for the purpose of operating an aviation fuel storage and handling facility. This ordinance constitutes the additional legislative authority required by Ordinance No. 83-2019 to exercise this option.

Section 2. That this ordinance is declared to be an emergency measure and, provided it receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to Council, it shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval by the Mayor; otherwise it shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.
