The Development, Planning and Sustainability Committee will conduct a hearing on the status of recycling in the City of Cleveland. The Mayors Administration will provide information regarding the expired contract and the bids for a new service provider. There will also be an update on the consultant hired to evaluate the entirety of how the city addresses our local waste stream - including solid waste and recycling. This will include timelines and opportunities for public input.

The above Committee Meetings have been scheduled by the appropriate Council Committee Chair.

Kimberly Burks Moss
Legislative Committee Clerk
